On November 4th, 1922. Received the following information from Mrs. Amelia Schidt of 1273 Carroll Street near New York Avenue, Brooklyn, she holds mortgage on Mrs. Gibson's farm for $8,750. The husband of Mrs. S. transacted all business, but he died two years ago and now affairs are managed by Mrs. S's attorney, John Klein or Klien of 931 Broadway, Bklyn. Mrs. Gibson is quite regular in her payments, might owe a little. Mrs. S. said I had better see her lawyer he could give me more information. Mrs. S. was not acquainted with Mrs. Gibson before the loan nor was she acquainted with any member of her family. She states that Mrs. Gibson seems alright and that Mrs. S. got most of her information recently from the newspapers. Also that a man was to see her a few days ago and whom she thought was a state trooper. There were two women in her house when I interviewed her. Mr. John Klein a lawyer. I was informed by him that Title was searched from the Middlesex Trust Company of N.B. by a Mr. Messenger. The property was formerly owned by Ignatz Martin who is a real estate operator. Mortgage held by John H. Schiedt and surveyed by a Raymond P. Wilson and also appraised by him. Records of property show Jane Gibson, deed, page 14,
